THE WASBINGTON UNION blished by CORNELIUS WENDELL,

FOR SALE AND RENT.

RENT, either furnished or unfurnished, and

NO LET—The three-story brick house, No. 423 pnn street, between E and F. Has bath-room and gas. Rent, laquire on the preluises.

Nov 50—If

ONLY AKTICLE UNITED TO ALLERY IN MARKet, with firmmene Home gand European Demand. soon why, is that by nature's own process it restores the object permanently after the Bair Describes gray; supplies the side, and thus makes it grow on baid heads, removes all teching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tonus up the off they cures all nervous headache, and may be reited upon il discases of the scalp and bair; it will stop and keep it from
; makes it soft, glossy, healthy, and beautiful, and, it used ming two or three times a week, it will never fall or become in, reader, read the following and judge for yourselves:

in, reason, to describe and property of the property of the property of the grant many persons the grant many persons the grant many persons, bad against all manner of patents, and a short time ago I commenced using your article to Corner Columbia and Carroll sts., Brooklyn.

Paor. Woon—Bear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing several years, canned, tsuppose, from a slight burn when I was be an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six ske and I find that have a fine head of heir now growing, after having juil other remedies known to ne effect. I think it the most valuaremedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to your remedy.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself medical to me. The front, and also the back part of my head also the lock part of my head also the six covering—was in fact bald. I have used but two half- at bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well used with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also caiving its hencit. I have tried other preparations without any medic whatever. I think, from my own personal recommendation, an induce many others to try it. Yours, respectfully, D. R. THOMAS, M. D. No. 464 Vine street.

ENGRAYER and designer in general, manufac-turer and inventor of the new, improved seal presses, watch-case engraver, wood engraver, music puncher, atenell cotter, copper-plate engraver, and lithographer, is prepared to execute engravings in any metal—on gold, silver, brass, copper, atenel, &c., in as good a workmaship manner as by any other establishment in the United Sates. The author/liber feels confident that all orders entrusted to

DSSES,
FFICIAL HAND AND BLOCK SEALS,
WATCH-CASE ENGRAVER,
WOOD ENGRAVER,
MUSIC PUNCHER
STENCH CITTER,
COPPER-PLATE ENGRAVER,
-1yd & SC., &C., &C.

VAN CAMP, DENTIST, has returned to the SIGN OF THE GOLD EAGLE.—Engravings—A spicedid lot of which is for sale at Wagner's, 255 Pennsylvania wang, opposite Kirkwood House. Framed or otherwise. Also, all kind of gilt picture frames.

WASHINGTON INSURANCE COMPANY.

Capital $200,000! STOCKHOLDERS INDIVIDUALLY LIABLE, losses. Corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Tenth street. Wm. F. Bayly, Benj. Beall, James F. Haiiday, Hudson Taylor,

Samuel Bacon, Joseph Bryan,
N. B.—No charge made for policies.

JAMES C. McGUIRE, President.
June 27—17

CARPETING, FLOOR OIL-CLOTH, RUGS, MAT-

, such as—
Veivet tapeatry carpetings, new designs
Tapeatry Brussels do
Kow styles Brussels do
Extra-heavy 3-ply do
Extra-heavy 3-ply do
Extra-beavy all-wool Dutch carpetings
Twilled Venitian carpeting for halls and stape Veivet and Brussels do

do
do
for

H. GILLET, Counsellor at Law, has removed this office to his office to his residence in Franklin Row, corner of K and Thirteenth atrects. He will continue to devote his attention principally to cases in the United States Supreme Court.

"DINNER PARTIES."

DINNER PARTIES."

DINNER PARTIES will be furnished to families st 33, 45, and 55 per head; or, if they prefer, a first-class french cook can be sent to their residence to prepare dinner for them if the moderate charge of 32 for his services.
Those withing to avoid the trouble of marketing can have the best the market affords sent to their houses at cost prices.
One or more dishes will be sent to any part of the city for those who may desire it. I guarantly to furnish a better dinner than any other establishment in the city, at a saving of 25 per cout.
C. GAUTIER, 283 Penn. av., between 12th and 13th streets.

IMMELL HOUSE. This nice and commedien IMMELL HOUSE.—This nice and commodicum, house has just been completed, and will be open for the reon of guesta on the 23d inst. This house will abound with comcausal in every respect to any house in this or any other city, nor will be supplied with the best of liquers at all times. I have get Mr. E. V. Campbell to assist and superintened the house. Me il known to the travelling community. The Kimmell House is ted on C street, between 45, and 6th streets, in the immediate ity of the National Hotel, and near the railroad depot.

A. F. KIMMELL, Propertor.
v 19—1y*

MANSION HOUSE FORMERLY THE EBBETT HOUSE, Near corner of F and Fourteenth streets, WASHINGTON, D. C.

MANTED.—A Spanish gentleman wishes to give practical lessons in Spanish in exchange for some in Ralian languages. His address can be acceptained at the Union office.

The Washington Union.

"LIBERTY, THE UNION, AND THE CONSTITUTION."

VOL. XIV. NO. 250.

WASHINGTON CITY, SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1859.

erow had perished.

"Master, as soon as the sea had awollowed up that wicked captain and crow, the wind died away, the waves fell, and the storm fulled—just as if it had done what it was sent to do and was satisfied. The wreck—where we poor forlorn ones stood—the wreck that had shivered and translided with several control of the wind died away, the waves fell, and the storm full of the wind died away, the waves fell, and the storm full of the wind died away.

turn to this neighborhood, where I was known, and ex-pose the evil deels of them willains, and for this cause lived on toiling and struggling, and laying up money penny by penny.

"No one ever helped me but the lad Herbert Grey-

"What more of the child?"

so far we have followed the lovely heroine and her rembled with every wave that struck it-until

A RMY SUPPLIES.

per yard 50,000 yards 36-inch unblenched cotton drilling, to weigh 8 oun-

25 drums complete, artillery 75 do do infantry 000 drum heads, batter 800 do do mare

400 do cortis 100 hospital tent poles, seta 500 wall do do do 000 hospital do pins, largo ,000 do do do small ,000 wall do do large ,000 do do de mall ,000 common do do

3,000 pounds tent line, large 2,000 pounds do do smail 200 pounds bolt rope 5,000 pounds balling rope 100 pounds flax twine

30,000 common do do
100,000 tent buttors, (wood,) small 25,000 do stips do do
100 garrison flag halliards
130 recruiting flag halliards
2,000 poeuds cotton sewing twine, 5 and 6 strands

100 pounds has twine 15,000 the canteens with cork stoppers, 3 plats, to weigh 11½ 500 from pots 8,000 mess pants—sheet/rea 3,000 camp ketfles—sheet iron, 3 sizes in nests

Payments will be made on each delivery, should congress have made an appropriation to meet them, or as soon thereafter as an appropriation shall be made for that purpose. Ten per cent of the amount of each delivery will be retained until the contract shall be completed, which will be forfeited to the United States in case of deficient on the part of the contract in fulfilling the contract. Forms of proposals will be formished upon application to this office. Proposals will be endorsed, Proposals will be chored, Composals for Furnishing Army Supplies and Materials, and be addressed

LEONARD SCOTT & CO.28 Reprint of the British Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine.

These periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—whit, tory, and radical—but politics forms only one feature of their character. As organs of the most profound writers on science, literature, morality, and religion, they stand, as they ever have stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indisensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they turnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the carriers literature of the day throughout the world than can be possibly obtained from any other source.

han can be possibly outsined from the Pritish publishers gives ad-EARLY COPIES.

The receipt of advance sheets from the British publishers gives ad-litional value to these reprints, maximich as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions.

STEREOSCOPIC PICTURES

"Most Wonderful and Beautiful."

SCOTT & CO., New York, continue to publish

SCOTT & CO., New 1 of R, Commun.

the following leading British periodicals, viz:

1. THE LONDON QUARTERLY, (conservative.)

2. THE EDINBURGH REVIEW, (conservative.)

3. THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, (free Church.)

4. THE WISTMINSTER REVIEW, (theral.)

5. BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE, (tory.)

currity or will be responsible that good security be furnished in coor a contract is obtained.

Bids from manufacturers of, or regular dealers in, the articles will be preferred, and contracts will be awarded to the lowest re-possible bidder who shall furnish the required securities for the performance me by others is forgery, and will be presecuted by us as a crimum they make more profit; inset on these.

Sold by nearly every drug and fancy goods dealer.
Oct 26—2awD&W12w

I NITED STATES PATENT OFFICE, convenient. It is to be distinctly understood, by every person obtaining a contract, that said contract is not transferable without the cost ent of proper suthority, and that any sale, assignment, ortransfer of without such consent having been obtained, (except under a process of law.) will be regarded as an abandonnent of the contract, and the contractor and his securities will be held responsible for all loss or damage to the United States which may arise from said abandonment.

ON THE PERIFION of Francis L. Holenburg, of New York, praying for the extension of a patent granted to him on the 7th of May, 1845, for an improvement in "stoves," for owen years from the extension of and patent, which takes place on the 7th day-of May, ance with the rules of the office, which will be furnished en application.

The testimony in the case will be closed on the 4th of April; depositions, and other papers relied upon as testimony, must be filed in the effice on or before the morning of that day; the arguments, if any, within ten days thereafter.

Ordered, also, that this notice be published in the Union, Washington, D. C., and lay Book, N. Y., once a week for three weeks—the first of said publications to be at least sixty days before the 18th of April next, the day of earing.

Ordered, JOSEPH HOLT,

P. S.—Editors of the above papers will please copy, and send their bills to the Patent Office, with a paper containing this notice.

Feb 4—1aw3w

Law and Land Agency, Washington.

RICHARD M. YOUNG, former Commissioner of the General Land Office, and SAMUEL V. NILES, late of the Virginia Scrip, Revolutionary, and Mar of 1812 Bounty Land Bareau, in the same department, having entered into a coparinership, will be reache give their joint attention to such business as may be condided to their management under the above firm. They will devote their attention chiefly to the procession of claims before Congress, the Superne Court of the United States, the Court of Claims, and all the executive departments of the government.

Office No. 480 Pennsylvania avenue.

EMINENT NEW AND POPULAR BOOKS FROM

MINENT NEW AND POPULAR BOOK

the "Innes." 30 cents.

Here to Farm Profitably; by Mecht, 75 cents.

A Lady's Capityly Among the Chinese Fractes. 25 cents.

How We are Governed; by Fonblatque. 50 cents.

Half-Horrs with the Frentlinkers. 87 cents.

A Handy Book on Criminal Law; by Sleigh. 62 cents.

Deater's Mineral Substance. 75 cents.

Disraell's Carlosities of Liberature. 3 vols. 23.

Curiosities of Science; by John Timbs. 31 25.

Twelve Locture to the Mate of Liverpool. 30 cents.

Secret Societies of the Middle Ages. 30 cents.

Boocher's Eight Months' Campaign against the Bengal Selmported from London.

FRANCE

Jan 29

HYMN TO THE PEOPLE.

Not to be blest with warrier strength, To wield the award and wear the glave. Or rise to conqueror's fame at length, Proclaims the good or makes the braye.

To have the power to bide the scorn,

What are the swords that prop a king— The banners in his army's van— To strength of soul, that dares to spring And show the monarch in the man?

In dim of old sepulchres they lie, The feast of silence and docay, While the true world heart beateth high And thrones itself upon to-day. Give me the man whose hands have tessed. The corn-seed to the mellow soil, Whose feet the forest depths have crossed. Whose brow is nobly crown'd with test.

THE HIDDEN HAND.

BY EMMA D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH,

"'Have you got through?' asked the man at the door, rapping impatiently.
"No, no," said I, as directed.

"Re resumed his transping up and down, and I went back to my patient. She beckoned me to come close, and whispered—
"Save my child! the living one I mean! hide her! oh, hide her from him! When he demands the babe, give him the poor little dead one—he cannot hurt that! and he will not know there was another. Oh! hide and save my child."
"Master, I was used to queer doings, but this was a little the queerest. But if I was to conceal that second child in order to save it, it was necessary to stop its mouth, for it was aqualling like a wild cat. So I took a vial of paragoric from my pocket and give it a drop, and it went off to sleep like an angel. I wrapped it up warm and lay it along with my shawl and bonnet, in a dark corner. Just then the man rapped again.

"Come in, master, said!
"No, bring me the babe," Le said.
"I took up the dead infant. Its mother kissed its brow and dropped tears upon its little cold face; and I carried it to the man outside.

brow and dropped tears upon its little cold face; and learnied it to the man outside.
"'Is it asleep!' the willian asked me. "Yes, master, said I, as I put it, well wrapped up, in his arms, 'very sound asleep.'

''So much the better,' said the knave, walking away.

''I bolted the door and went back to my patient. With her free hand she seized mine and pressed it to her lips, and then held up her left hand, pointed to the wedding ring upon her third finger.

''Draw it off and keep it,' she said; 'conceal the child under your shawl, and take her with you when you go; save her, and your fortune shall be made.'

''I declare, master, I hadn't time to think, before I heard one of them wretches rap at the door.

''Come! get ready to go,' he said.

'She also beckoned me. I hastened to her. With eager whispers and imploring gestures she prayed me to take her ring and save her child.

''But you, 'said I—who is to attend you?'

''I do not know nor care! Save her!'

''The rapping continued. I ran to the corner where I had left my things. I put on my bonnet, made a sort of sling around my neck of the silk hankercher, opened the large part of it like a hammock and laid the little sleeping babe there. Then I folded my big shawl arou my breast and nobody any the wiser. The rapping was very impatient.

''I am coming,' said I.

''Remember!' whispered the poor girl.

''I will,' said I, and went and opened the door. There stood t'other willian with his head covered with black crape. I dreamt of nothing but black-headed demons for six months afterward.

'''Are you ready?' says he.

for six months afterward.

or six months afterward.

''Are you ready?' says he.

'Yes, your worship,' says I.

''Come along, then.'

''And binding another silk handkerchief round my eyes, he led me along.

... Instead of my mule a carriage stood near the ho Get in,' says he, holding the pistil to my cars by we come, in course, for there was no carriage road there. The carriage whirled along at such a rate it made me quite giddy. At last it stopped again. The man in the mask got down and opened the door.

"Where are you taking me?" the pistil to my cheek, ordered me to get out, take the bandage from my eyes, and walk before him. I did so, and saw dimly that we were in a part of the country that I was never at before. We were in a dark road through a thick forest. On the left side of the road, in a clearing, stood an old house; a dim light was burning in a ing, stood an old house; a dim light was burning in a lower window.

"'Go on in there,' said the willian, putting the pistil to the back of my head. As the door stood ajar I went into a narrow, dark passage, the man all the while at my back. He opened a door on the left side, and made me go into a dark room. Just then the unfortunate child that had been moving restlessly began to wail!

Well it might, poor starved thing!

"What's that?" says the miscreant, under his breath and stooding short.

baby. But the poor little wretch raised a squall.

"What is the meaning of this?" says he. 'Where did that child come from? Why the demon don't you speak?" and with that he seized me again by the scruff did that child come from? Why the demon don't you speak? and with that he seized me again by the scruff of the neck and shook me.

"Oh, Master, for the love of Heaven, don't, saye I, 'this is only a poor, unfortnet infant, as its parients wanted to get outen the way, and hired me to take care on. And I have had it wrapped up under my shawl all the time, 'cept when I was in your house, when I put it to sleep in the corner.

"Humph! and you had that child concealed under your shawl when I first stopped you in the woods?"

"In course, Master,' says I.

"Whose is it?"

"Moster,' says I, 'it's—it's a dead secret!' for I haddent snother lie ready.

"He broke out into a rude, scornful laugh, and seemed not half to believe me and yet not to care about questioning me too closely. He made me sit down then in the dark, and went out and turned the key on me. I wet my finger with the paragoric and put it to the baby's lips to quiet its pains of hunger. Then I heard a whispering in the next room. Now my eyesight nover was good, but to make up for it I believe I had the sharpest ears that ever was, and I don't think anybody could have heard that whispering but me. I saw a little glimmer of light through the chinks that showed me where the door was, and so I creeped up to it and put my car to the key-hole. Still they whispered so low that no cars could o' heard them but my shaup ones. They was talking about selling some woman and child. I should 'av been onessy if they hadn't called the woman Kate. My willain of fered 'em for fifty dollars, but t'other willain wouldn't give a cent. He told my willain, as he called Captain, that he'd take 'em off his hands and no more. And then they threatened each other, and went out o' my hearin'. And in the mornin' the new willain came and took me and the child off in a susy and drove down a long way to the beach, and hailed a wessel on the river and took us aboard and sold us to the captain right afore my eyes, and then went ashore, and we was carried off out to sea, though I cried, and 'sp

Etc., lines or less make a square longer advertisements or levies or three & year will be charged 375 cents per quarter larged and the proportion after the first. Advertisements once a week in the cents per square for each insertion. Special notices charge the foregoing rates.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Thirty-fifth Congress Second Session. SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1859.

A message was received from the President of the Uni-ted States, transmitting, in compliance with a resolution of the 4th ult., correspondence with the government of Peru, or its agents, on the subject of trade in guano; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations and ordered to be printed.

The President communicates a letter from the Secretary of State, enclosing all the correspondence from the 10th of January, 1854, to the 9th of August, 1868.

RESOLUTIONS OF STATE LEGISLATURES.

sarth had come together, and then everybody screaming.

'She's struck! She's struck!' I felt the vessel trembling like a live creetur, and the water a pouring iff every where. I hugged the babe and scrambled up the companion way to the deck. It was pitch dark, and I heard every man rushing toward one side of the wessel.

''A flash of lightning, that made every thing as bright as day again, showed hie that they were all taking to the boat. I rushed after, calling for them to save me and the baby. But no one seemed to hear me; they were all too busy trying to save themselves and here others out of the boat, and cursing and swearing and hollering that there was no mere room—that the beat would be swamped, and so on. The end was, that all who could crowd into the boat did so. And me and the baby and a poor sallor had and the black cook were left behind to perish.

'But, master, as it turned out, we as was left to die, were the only ones saved. We watched after that boat with longing eyes, though we could only see it when the lightning flashed. And every time we saw it it was farther off. At last, master, a hash of lightning showed us the boat as far off as ever we could see her, capsized and beaten hither and thither by the wild waves—its crow had perished.

''Master, as soon as the sea had swollowed up that wicked eathin and crew the wind died away, the waves

Mr. SEWARD presented resolutions of the legislature of the State of New York that the people of that State are opposed to any increase of the present rates of postage, and that their representatives will promote the best interests of the State by refusing to support any law providing for such increase; which were ordered to lie on the table and be printed.

Mr. CHANDLER presented resolutions of the legislature of the State of Michigan, requesting their representatives to use their best efforts to procure the passage of a law granting to said State 100,000 acres of land, the proceeds of which to be set apart as a fund to be used exclusively in the crection of buildings and for the support of the asylum for the insane, and for the blind, deaf, and dumb; which were ordered to be printed and referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

MEMORIALS, ETC. frembled with every wave that struck it—until we had feared it would break up every minute, became still and firm on its sandbar, as a house on dry land.

"Daylight came at last. And a little after surrise we saw a sail bearing down upon us. We could not signal the sail, but by the mercy of Providence she saw us and lay to, and sent off a boat, and picked us up and took us on board—me and the baby, and the cook and the sailor lad.

MEMORIALS, ETC.

The following memorials and petitions were presented appropriately referred:

board—me and the baby, and the cook and the sailor lad.

"It was a foreign vessel, and we could not understand a word they said, nor they us. All we could do was by signs. But they were very good to us, dried our clothes and gave us breakfast, and made us lie down and rest. And then put about and continued their course. The sailor lad—Herbert Greyson—soon found out and told me they were bound for New York. And, in fact, marster, in about ten days we made that port.

"Well, marster, I sint a gwine to bother you with telling you of how I toiled and struggled along in that great city—first living out as a servant, and afterwards renting a room and taking in washing and ironing—aye! how I toiled and struggled—for—ten—long—years, hopling for the time to come when I should be able to return to this neighborhood, where I was known, and ex-

The following memorials and petitions were presented and appropriately referred:

By Mr. SEWARD: From D. W. Lamsford and other citizens of New York, urging upon the Senate the passage of the bill passed by the House of Representatives to pension the soldiers of the war of 1812.

Also, from the city of New York, remonstrating against any further traffic in the public lands, and that they be laid out in farms for the exclusive use of actual settlers.

By Mr. WHSON: From citizens of Boston, protesting against the removal of the post office of that city from its present location.

Also, from citizens of Massachusetts, asking that the bills to extend the patents of E. M. Chaffee and Nathaniel Hayward for improvements in the manufacture of India rubber goods may not be passed.

By Mr. FOOT: From citizens of New York, very numerously signed, urging upon the Senate the passage of the laud bill known as the homestead bill.

By Mr. CAMERON: From citizens of Pennsylvania, very numerously signed, in favor of the same.

By Mr. THOMSON, of New Jersey: From citizens of New York and New Jersey, protesting against any further traffic in the public lands, and requesting that they be laid out in farms for the exclusive use of actual settlers. "No one ever helped me but the had herect drey-son. Whenever he came from sea, he sought me out, and made a little present to me or Cap.
"Cap, marster, was Capitola, the child. The reason I gave her that name was because on that ring I had drawn from the masked mother's hand were the two names—Eu-

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES.

Mr. BAYARD, from the Committee on the Judiciary, to which was referred the bill to authorize the Attorney General to represent the United States in the proceedings in equity now pending in the Supreme Court between the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the State of Rhode Island, reported back the same without amendment, and select its impediate assesses.

"Well, marster, the last time Herbert Greyson came home, he gave me five dollars, and that, with what I had saved, was enough to pay my passage to Norfolk.

"Heft my little Cap in the care of the people of the house—she was big enough to pay for her keep in work, and I took passage for Norfolk. When I got there I fell ill, spent all my money, and was at last taken to the poorhouse. Six months passed away before I was discharged, and then six more before I had earned and saved money enough to pay my way on here. Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the State of Rhode Island, reported back the sume without amendment, and asked its immediate passage.

The motion having been agreed to, the bill was explained by Messrs. BAYARD and WILSON and passed.

Mr. CLAY, from the Committee on Commerce, to which was referred a report of the Secretary of the Treasury on the subject, reported a bill reorganizing the collection districts of the United States, and designating the ports of entry and delivery for the same, and regulating the appointment and compensation of officers of the customs; which was read and passed to a second reading.

Mr. FITCH, from the Committee on Indian Affairs, reported a bill to compensate Israel Johnson for services performed by direction of the Indian agents at the treaty ground at the forks of the Wabash in 1833; which was read and passed to a second reading.

Mr. REID, from the Committee on Patents and the Patent Office, to which was referred the resolution of Mr. Szwano, calling for a list of all rejected or suspended applications for patents since 1840, reported adversely on the same; which was agreed to.

Mr. CHESNUT, from the Committee on Public Lauds, to which was referred the memorial of Lucian Peyronnet, of Charleston, S. C., asking to be allowed to locate certain bounty land warrants issued under act of Congress of 11th February, 1849, submitted an adverse report on the same; which was agreed to.

Mr. DAVIS, from the Committee on Military Affairs, to which was referred the resolution directing that committee to inquire into the propriety of paying the officers of the army a gross sum instead of the allowances now given them, reported a bill to fix the pay and regulate the allowances of officers of the army; which was read and passed to a second reading. enough to pay my way on here.

'I reached here three days ago, and found a wheat field growing where my cottage fire used to burn, and all my old cromes dead, all except old Hat, who has reall my old cromes dead, at except oil flut, was hos received and given me shelter. Sir, my story is done—make what you can of it," said the invalid, sinking down in her bed as if utterly exhausted.

Old Hurricane, whose countenance had expressed emotions as powerful as they were various while listening to this tale, now arose, stepped cautiously to the door, drew the bolt, and coming back, bent his head and asked—

"What more of the child?"
"Cap, sir? I have not heard a word of Cap since I left her to try and hunt out her friends. But any one interested in her might inquire for her at Mrs. Simmons', laundress, No. 8 Rag Alley."

"Ya say the names upon that ring were—Eugene—apitola?"
"Yes, sir, they were." "Yes, sir, they were."
"Have you that ring about you?"
"No, master. I thought it was best, in case of accidents, to leave it with the child."
"Have you told her any part of this strange history?"
"No master, nor hinted it; she was too young for such a confidence."
"You were right. Had she any mark about her person by which she could be identified?"
"Yes, master, a very strange one. In the middle of her left palm was the perfect image of a crimson hand, about half an inch in length. There was also another. Herbert Greyson, to please me, marked upen her fore arm in India ink, her name and birthday—'Capitola, Oct. 31st, 1832."
"Right. Now tell me, my good soul, do you know, from what you were enabled to observe, what house that was where Capitola was born?"

and passed to a second reading.

TILLS INTRODUCED.

Mr. WAED asked and obtained unanimous consent to introduce a bill for the relief of Mrs. Elizabeth M. Cook, widow of Major Thomas H. Cook, late United States marshal of the district of Texas; which was read twice

Mr. MASON asked and obtained unanimous consent to introduce a bill for the relief of Anna E. Bronaugh, wid-ow of the late John W. Bronaugh; which was read twice ow of the late 30 m is the committee on Naval Affairs.

The bill for the relief of Samuel A. West, George McCallough, and Charles Pendergrast, was considered and Callough, and Charles Fendergrass, was considered and passed.

On motion by Mr. HARLAN, the Indian appropriation bill was reconsidered, and a slight amendment was made in it, when it was again read a third time and passed.

On motion by Mr. TRUMBULL, the House joint resolution to correct a clerical error in "an act for the relief of Isaac Body and Samuel Fleming," was taken up and passed.

The amendment of the House of Representatives to the Senate joint resolution for changing the plan of the custom house at Galveston, in the State of Texas; was con-

BATTROAD ON DENNSYLVANIA AVENUE.

woman.

She noded again, with a look of intense meaning.

"Does your old hostess here, Hat, know or suspect anything of this story?" inquired Major Warfield.

"Not a word! No soul but yourself has heard it!"

"That is right! Still be discreet! If you would have the wicked punished and the innocent protected, be silent and wary. Have no anxiety about the girl. What man can do for her will I do and quickly! And now, good creature, day is actually dawning. You must seek repose. And I must call the parson in and return home. I will send Mrs. Condiment over with feed, wine, medicine, clothing, and every comfort that your condition requires," said Old Hurricane, rising, and calling in the clergyman, with whom he soon after left the hut for home.

At one o'clock, the Senate resumed the consideration of the bill from the House of Representatives in relation to a railway along Pennsylvania avenue, in Washington city, District of Columbia.

Mr. BRIGHT hoped that this bill would be laid aside, in order to proceed to the consideration of a bill of much more importance, which was yesterday reported by himself from the Committee on Public Buildings—being the bill to rewrite for the core and preservation of the works. They reached Hurricane Hall in time for an early breakfast, which the astonished housekeeper had prepared, and for which their night's adventures had certainly given them a good appetite.

Major Warfield kept his word, and as soon as breakfast was over he dispatched Mrs. Condiment with a carriage filled with provisions for the sick woman. But they were not needed. In a couple of hours the housekeeper returned with the intelligence that the old nurse was dead. The false strength of mental excitement that had enabled her to tell so long and dreadful a tale had been the last flaring up of the flame of life, that almost immediately went out. self from the Committee on Public Buildings—being the bill to provide for the care and preservation of the works constructed by the United States for bringing the Potomic water into the cities of Washington and Georgetown, for the supply of said water for all governmental purposes, and for the uses and benefit of the inhabitants of the said cities. The bill now under consideration would doubtless lead to a long debate, and he therefore moved to postpone its further consideration with a view to take up the last flaring up of the hame of life, that almost immediately went out.

"I am not sorry, upon the whole, for now I shall have the game in my own hands?" muttered Old Hurricane to himself—"Ah! Gabrielle Le Noir! better you had cast yourself down from the highest rock of this range and been dashed to pieces below than have thus fallen into my power." postpone its further consideration with a view to take up the bill he had named.

Mr. BROWN stated that he was opposed to the adop-tion of that course. The milroad bill was about two-thirds finished, and he thought it would be a want of economy in time to pass it by now and take up anything else.

So far we have followed the lovely heroine and her friends; but the foregoing is all that we can publish in our columns. The remainder of the narrative can only be found in the New-York Ledger, the great family paper which can be obtained at all the periodical stores where papers are sold. Remember to ask for the Ledger, dated February 12, and in it you will get the continuation of the narrative from where it leaves off here. If there are no bookstores or news offices convenient to where you reside, the publisher of the Ledger will send you a copy by mail if you will send him five cents in a letter. Address Robert Bonner, Ledger office, 44 Ann street New York. This story grows more and more interesting as it progresses. else.

Mr. BAYARD thought that after the very full discussion that took place last Saturday on this bill the subject was exhausted, and there was no reason why a vote could not be had on the proposition now.

The question being taken, the motion of Mr. Braurr was not agreed to —yeas 17, nave 27—as follows:

Was Baies, Beight, Chesnut, Congman, Davis,

YEAS Mesers Allon, Batr, Hayle 27—as follows:

YEAS Mesers Allon, Batr, Hayle 27—as follows:

YEAS Mesers Allon, Mason, Fugh, Shelds, Shdell, Thomson of New Jersey, Teombs, Wade, and Wright—17.

NAYS Mesers Bayard, Broderick, Brown, Cameron, Chandler, Collamer, Crittenden, Bixon, Doullife, Burkee, Fessenden, Fitch, Fitzpeirick, Green, Hale, Hamlin, Harlan, Houston, Johnson of Tennessee, Kennedy, King, Reid, Rice, Seward, Simmons, Trumbull, and Wilson—27.

In long way to the beach, and haided a wessel on the river and took us aboard and sold us to the captain right afore my eyes, and then went ashore, and we was carried off out to sea, though I cried, and 'splained, and spostalated all the time.

"Now, sir, come a strange providence, which the very thoughts of it might convert a heathen! We had been to see about five days when a dreafful storm ris. I tell you, master, that looked like the wrath of God! I hugged the baby to my breast—and went to praying as hard as ever I could pray.

"Presently I felt an awful shock, as if Heaven and been and plunderers.

The Navajo Indians.—The Fort Defiance dates by the Santa Fe mail are to December 21. They say that the rain that the form of an additional section, to the effect than nothing in this act contained shall be construed to authorize the said Washington Passenger Railroad Company to make, is na letter to the Santa Fe Gazette, intimates that there is a disposition to deal too harshly with these Indians, and says that looked like the wrath of God! I hugged the baby to my breast—and went to praying as lard as ever I could pray.

"Presently I felt an awful shock, as if Heaven and beer and plunderers.

W E have now on hand one of the largest and most varied assortments of STERESCOPIC PROTURES offered in this city, on plans or paper, plain and colored, consisting of views of the principal places of the United States.

We have, also, in great variety, Elliott's celebrated groups of per-lur and domestic scenes, weddings, christenings, pic-nics, &c., &c.

We also offer a fine collection of storeognopic instruments, of various apples, manufactured to our own order. Those instruments and pictures form the pretitest and most interesting present that can be offered to did to young.

About the Let of March, of the present year, I commenced using Mrs. S. A. Allen's "Resident", No. I, according to the direction, and have continued to apply a singlist dreams of the same cance in three or four weeks, on retiring to bed. My hair is now almost restored to its original color, and the how appears to be permanent. I am safetyle dat the preparation is making like a dys, but operate upon the secretions. My hair ocases to fall, which is certainly an advantage to one who was in danger of becoming bath.

The "Zylobalsamum! I have found the best and most agreeable hair dressing of anything which I have ever used for that purpose.

REV. M. THACHER.

Pitcher, Chemings Co., N. T.

Ever. W. B. Thousentor, Private, Lamoshive, Even and. "Your Hair

Rev. W. B. Thousetok, Preved, Lancoshire, Eng and, "Your Ha lestorer is a perfect marvel. After having used it for six weeks, in dressely gray hair was restored to its natural color—not the wig rous specifies to little purpose, I discarded all, believing them to no value. So I regarded your World's Hair Restorer and Zylo Hair Balam, 355 Broome Street, New York, 'blown on them. Circu lars around bottles copyrighted. None other is genuine. Signing the for an improvement of piration of said patent, which takes place on the 7th day or say, 1859—

It is ordered that the said petition be heard at the Patent Office on Monday, the 18th of April next, at 12 o'clock, m., and all persons are notified to appear and show cause, if any they have, why said petition ought not to be granted.

Persons opposing the extension are required to file in the Paten Office their objections, specially set forth in writing, at least twent days before the day of hearing; all testimony filed by either party is be used at the said hearing must be taken and transmitted in according to the said of the office, which will be furnished on applied ance with the rules of the office, which will be furnished on applied

YOUNG & NILES.

TEXAS LAND AGENCY.

McCaliTY & BROWN, Austin, Texas,
General Land and Real Estate apents,
Will locate land, pay taxes, buy and sell land on committend to overything pertaining to a general land agency given.